The marriage of Miss Pamela Sue Smith to Phillip Edward (Gus) Paulettte took place on Saturday, September 8, 1984 at 7 o'clock in the evening at Liberty Chapel Baptist Church in Appomattox. The Rev. James N. Williams, Jr., pastor of the church, and the Rev. C. Douglas Pillow, uncle of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eugene (Sonny) Smith of Gladstone, Virginia. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. David Edward Paulette and the late Mr. Paulette of Appomattox, Virginia.

The bride, escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, wore a floor length gown of soft chiffon. The gown featured a delicate point d' esprit yoke with a high wedding ban collar accented with a tear drop pearl and a venice lace bodice scattered with a sea of pearls. The ham was schiffli embroidered and flowed down to chapel length. Her hat was a silk venice picture styling with seed pearling. Her blusher was of French veiling with an attached illusion pouff and a single tier of fingertip veiling. She carried a cascade bouquet of cymbidian orchids, white roses, and stephanotis with trails of ivy.

Miss Renee Williams of Gladstone served as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Dan Cohen of Wayne, Pennsylvania; Miss Beth Taylor, cousin of the bride, of Lynchburg; Miss Brenda Carter, cousin of the bride, of Spout Spring; Miss Jann Mason, Front Royal, Virginia; Miss Teresa Lettner of Lynchburg; and Mrs. Barry Loy of Forest, Virginia. The attendants wore floor length gowns of lalique taffeta in Rosetta color. They featured slipper strap styling with filled bodice and a short jacket cover-up of straight short pouff sleeves with stand-up ruffle collars. Their headpieces were of Rosetta color and designed of lace netting in a popcorn illusion and accented with seed pearls. The bridesmaids carried a casual gathering of cymbidian orchids with baby's breath gathered with satin streamers.

Mr. Ronald Harvey of Appomattox served as best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Phil Susso of Falls Church, Virginia; Mr. Donald Harvey of Appomattox; Mr. Fred Griego of East Haven, Connecticut; Mr. Steve Cobb of Pamplin; Mr. Richard Rossetti of Everett, Massachusetts; and Mr. Danny Hackett, brother-in-law of the groom, of Dillwyn, Virginia.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with short coat and cummerbund. The groomsmen wore silver gray tuxedos with white pleated shirts and gray cummerbunds.

Miss Wendy Hackett, niece of the groom, was flower girl and wore a white and rosetta print floor length dress.

Mr. Davey Hackett, nephew of the groom, of Dillwyn, Virginia and Mr. David Godsey, cousin of the bride, of Middletown, Pennsylvania served as ringbearers. They wore tuxedos identical to those of the groomsmen.

Attendants at the guest book were Miss Bonnie Paulette and Mrs. Glenda Hackett, sisters of the groom.

Miss Sue Wilkinson of Dundas, Virginia provided the nuptial music.

Miss Sue Wilkinson, Miss Ann Caldwell, Mr. Jody Williams, and Miss Renee Williams were soloists. Selections included "You and I", "The Wedding Song", and "Rivers of Love".

Mrs. Gwen Franklin and Mrs. Ethelyne Megginson, both of Appomattox served as mistresses of ceremony.

The mother of the bride chose a crepe floor length gown of periwinkle color with a lavendar cummerbund. The mother of the groom chose a light lavendar floor length gown accented with layers of chiffon.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and Central Virginia Community College. She is presently employed at Babcock & Wilcox in Lynchburg.

The groom is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and Hampden-Sydney College in Farmville. He is presently employed by The Farmers' National Bank in Appomattox.
